

Shed Permit Requirements

MUST HAVE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING IN ORDER TO ACCEPT APPLICATION

Manufactured Utility Shed (Maximum size 10' long x 10' wide x 7' high):

- Building application: - Must include Lot, Block, Subdivision and Job Value
  - Include a survey showing the footprint of property and indicate the location and size of shed to be installed.
  - Shed shall not be located in the set backs established by zoning regulations.
  - Two copies of the current product approvals. Must highlight all components, connections and method of anchorage.
  - Sheds that have a floor area more than 720 square feet shall comply with the impact requirements of this Code. (FBC 1626.1, Exception F)
  - All sheds require a reinforced concrete slab with thicken edge of 8"x8" with #5 bar.
- OR
- Approved tie downs on engineering plans. Designed for wind load not less than 15 pound per sq foot (718 Pa). (FBC 1620.5)
  - Roof of shed shall be designed for a live load as defined per FBC 1607.1

Hand framed shed:

- Building application: - Must include Lot, Block and subdivision, and job Value
- Include a survey showing the footprint of property and indicate the location and size of shed to be installed.
- Shed shall not be located in the set backs established by zoning regulations
- Engineer plans: Signed and sealed.
- Roof of shed shall be designed for a live load as defined per FBC 1607.1
- The deflection of any structural member shall not exceed L/80.
- Sheds that have a floor area more than 720 square feet shall comply with the impact requirements of this Code. (FBC 1626.1, Exception F)

Sheds larger than 10' x 10' x 7'

- Shall be designed as a regular building to comply with FBC.