(Attach additional page(s) if more space is needed.)

Section 98-85 of the Deerfield Beach Land Development Code states:

Conditional uses, as enumerated in Article III hereof, shall be permitted only upon authorization by the zoning appeals special master or the city commission where the request for a conditional use is part of a site plan application or change of use application provided that such uses comply with the following requirements and other applicable requirements as set forth in this article. The burden of proving that the use does so comply shall be on the applicant who shall be required to affirmatively demonstrate that said use complies with each and every condition set forth herein.

This application will not be accepted without a specific statement in response to each of the requirements on the following pages.

1. That the use is a permitted conditional use as set forth in Article III of the Deerfield Beach Development Code:

2. That the use complies with all specific development requirements as set forth for that use in the district in which it is located. (Site plan and building permit records on file with the City are public records and may be reviewed during regular business hours):

3. That the use is designed, located, and proposed to be operated that the public health, safety, welfare, and convenience will be protected as far as tangible effect, including but not limited to, noise, air pollution, traffic problems, and overcrowding:

4. That the use will not cause injury to the value of the other property in the neighborhood where it is located here such injury results from the noise, traffic, or other tangible effects which will occur as a result of the intended use:

- 5. That the use will be compatible with adjoining development and the proposed character of the district where it is to be located:

- 6. That the use will have a density and intensity of development as compatible with the neighborhood in which it is located:

- 7. That adequate landscaping and screening is provided to screen the development or use from neighboring residential areas to provide an opaque buffer from said residential areas. The applicant may be required to take additional measures for landscaping or screening purposes which measures are in excess of the requirements for a permitted use:

- 8. That the use will not increase traffic on an adjoining street so as to lower its level of service below the adopted level of service or create a traffic nuisance to adjoining properties utilizing the same streets:

- 9. That adequate off-street parking, stacking, and loading is provided, that ingress and egress are so designed as to cause minimum interference with traffic on abutting streets and that the use has adequate frontage on a public or approved private street:

- 10. That the use conforms with all applicable regulations governing the district where it is located:
